Incredible subject choice

Our arts and humanities degrees cover a huge range of interests and human activity—from the creative arts, languages, history and media, to criminology, international development, environmental policy and politics. They can equip you to succeed in a wide variety of valuable and rewarding roles, such as in:

- government and public service
- social planning and policy development
- foreign affairs and diplomacy
- festival management and cultural curation
- crime prevention
- humanitarian work
- the creative industries
- journalism.

An enviable location

The University of Adelaide presents an ideal location for arts study. Our main campus' position in the heart of our city's central business district and cultural precinct puts a vast number of related bodies and organisations—government, private sector and not-for-profit—within an easy walk.

Capitalising on this advantage, you'll have ample opportunity to deepen your real-world understanding through hands-on experience with one of these organisations in an extended internship.

Career prospects

Employment growth for arts- and humanities-related roles range broadly from stable to very strong^.
